

From: Jocelyn secretary@amhs.co.nz
Subject: Auckland Medical History Society - Meeting 1 July 2026
Date: 31 May 2026 at 7:48 PM
To: judy.murphy@auckland.ac.nz

J

View this email in your browser

AUCKLAND MEDICAL HISTORY SOCIETY

Meeting Announcement - 1 July 2026

Dear Members

MEETING ANNOUNCEMENT

WEDNESDAY

1 July 2026 at 7 pm

Venue

The Ernest and Marion Davis Library (EMDL)
Building 43, Auckland City Hospital

The EMDL will be open from 6.15 pm

Join is for coffee, tea and snacks before the meeting

LECTURES

Presenter Andrew Connolly

Shell Shock in the Great War

Followed by
Two short presentations
by the Medical Humanities Students

Abstracts and biographical details of the presenters – see below

All welcome – bookings are not required

See the AMHS website for Latest News page <https://www.amhs.co.nz/> for updates and links to the 2026 Programme

Abstract (Details TBC)

Shell Shock in the Great War by Andrew Connolly

Biographic details

Andrew Connolly is a general and colorectal surgeon at Middlemore Hospital. He has a deep interest in military medical history especially in the Great War. Andrew has co-authored a book on the men commemorated on the War Memorial at Auckland Grammar School and has given numerous talks on aspects of military history.

Abstracts & Biographic details (Details TBC)

Medical Humanities students

Our mailing address is:
secretary@amhs.co.nz

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.